W8888888 FOR THE WATER LILY

All wall poems in the Leiden region can now be found on a new website: muurgedichten.nl. Discover 10 wall poems with this bike route and receive a surprise gift afterwards. The route takes about 45 to 60 minutes. You can navigate using the addresses on this flyer or by using the digital route map on muurgedichten.nl.

BIKE ROUTE

Let us know you're en route! Post a picture at one of the wall poems with #alsmurenspreken on Twitter - @taalmuseum or Instagram - @alsmurenspreken.

The bike route will take about 45 to 60 minutes. Every poem along the route comes with a question, for which the answers can be found on muurgedichten.nl. Found all the answers? Hand them in before 31 October 2018 at BplusC at Stevenshof, Merenwijk or Nieuwstraat, or at Old School and receive a fun surprise.

A. Vlieger (2) - Kees Buurman
Broekplein 2 (corner of Dwergwier),
Leiden

Question: Kites are an important theme in the poetry of Kees Buurman. In which other forms of art did he also incorporate kites?

B. Kexi - Du Fu
Buizerdhorst 110-111 (opposite
Papiermolen), Leiden

Question: What is this Chinese poem about?

C. De Waterlelie - Frederik van Eeden
Valkenhorst 30 (tunnel de Valk / Valkenpad)

Question: Jan Willem Bruins always applied the poems to the wall freehand. This meant the occasional mistake slipped in. Behind the word 'blank' on the second line of this poem, one word is missing. What word is that?

D. Wij w8888888 - Kurt Schwitters
Bonaireplein 09-29

Question: Where did Schwitters hope people would await him?

E. Het kind en ik - Martinus Nijhoff
Sumatrastraat/Formosastraat 33 en 48
Question: What is special about the design of this wall poem?

F. Zang Tumb Tumb -
Filippo Tommaso Marinetti
Hoge Rijndijk 8

Question: The sounds you read in this poem are not as joyous as they seem. What do they represent?

G. A une passante -
Charles Baudelaire
Zoeterwoudsesingel 55

Question: Underneath this poem you may notice a little blue French lily. What does this signature symbolize?

H. Nacht - Aleksandr Blok
Thorbeckestraat 52

Question: This wall poem comes with two squares. These are inspired by the work of a famous artist. Who is this artist?

I. Vruntschap - Jan van Hout
Drie Octoberstraat 34

Question: Jan van Hout is not a famous poet, but he is a famous Leidener. What is he primarily known for in Leiden?

J. De ridder in het pantervel -
Sjota Roestavli
Witte Rozenstraat 1

Question: After 100 wall poems, the TEGEN-BEELD Foundation frequently received requests to add wall poems in missing languages. This wall poem is an example. In what language is it written?
